A Little Advice!

For the last two or three weeks we have let our "AD," run without change, knowing that it was doing good work. We have thought that a little advice about the keeping and whipping of our CREAM might be appreciat-ed.

It should be kept in ICE COLD WATER un-til wanted for use, and then there will be no trouble about its whipping in good shape, We have pure mik and can supply in any quantity at short notice.

Quantity at short notice.

Lee cream manufacturers and large users of cream are especially requested to call for prices, and give our cream a trial. Cream will be delivered at any point in the city or suburbs if enough is ordered at one time to make it an object, or will be shipped by express to any point in the state.

PASSED AWAY.

A Well Known New Haven Lady Dies at the Home of a Sister in South Hadley The many friends of Mrs. Mary Jayne will learn with regret of her death, which occurred Saturday at the home of her sister-in-law in South Hadley Falls, Mass., where she went several weeks ago seeking a change of air in quest of health. Last fall she contracted a heavy cold which later de- is it a powerful nutritive in itself, but it conveloped pulmonary difficulties, and although the best medical skill was employed and loving friends administered to her every want the dreaded disease, consumption, made fast progress upor her somewhat frail constitution, and she slowly and surely failed until at last the hand of death put an end to her sufferings. She passed peacefully away. The deceased was a young woman of rare virtues, genial, companionable and solicitious for the welfare of others. Around her declining health rested the halo of loving and tender friendships. In the home circle the full wealth of her virtues was revealed and the gentle hand of love held the wand of control. An affectionate, loving wife her years have passed on in the smooth current of domestic hap piness and the enduring love of a hus band whose bereavement is great. She was a consistent Christian and a mem ber of St. John's R. C. church and he demise will be regretted by her asso ciates there and her memory cherished

Ringling Brothers' circus is to be in his city on Monday, July 8, and will exhibit both afternoon and evening at the lot this side of the Ellm City Driving park. This great aggregation requires four railroad trains to transport it from city to city, while the exhibitions are given in three rings, on two elevated stages and upon a great quarter mile track, under the largest canvas pavilons ever erected. The menagerie is the most complete zoological collection in America, while the circus performance s a constant succession of wonders The acrobats, gymnasts, aerialists and riders number over one hundred of Eu ope and America's highest salaried artists, including the DaComas, famous aerialists; the great Eddy family of acrobats; the Landauer troupe of nine flexible models; Orrin Hollis, Mike Rooney, Ceclle Lowande, M'lle Elena, Julia Lowande and Marian Leslie, the cele brated bareback riders; the Ty-Bells in their remarkable breakaway ladder act; William DeVan and Daniel Leon the famous hurdle riders; the Miaco family of clowns and acrobats, and scores of other notable features. Beginning one hour before the regular per formance Liberati's famous military band of sixty soloists will give a grand musical festival, which will be free to all patrons of Ringling Brothers' great show. Abundant time will also be giv en to examine the menagerie, which em braces the only glant giraffe in America, the largest and heaviest hipcopotamus ever captured, two herds of serforming elephants, and more other strange and curious wild beasts than any other exhibition in a world; a horse fair comprising 400 of the finest blooded stock that money could procure; a mammoth aquarium and musee of marvels; school of reason-endowed ponies in surprising drills and maneuvres; thrilling two and four horse chariot races, gladatorial contests and exciting Roman

gala day sports; a gorgeous spectacular
